Tired of the same old Bored Room?

The Irwin Inn on Stoney Lake offers the perfect alternative for your next Executive Retreat or Planning Session.

With an emphasis on getting you out of the board room and into the great outdoors, the Irwin Inn offers an out of the box experience for your team.

Imagine, renewed productivity from an invigorating hike, or the enhance leadership skills developed after a guided paddle along the shore line.

At Irwin, we understand that a decision to hold an offsite meeting must create results within your team.

With your goal in mind, we will create the perfect return on your investment.

Combine our natural assets with superb cuisine, attentive service, superior accommodation, and you'll return with your colleagues year after year.
